Response QUESTIONS

Use these questions during gaps in the scheduling to help the attendees apply the conference messages. You can provide an “open mic” for response, have the attendees discuss their answers in small groups of 2–3 people, or provide a quiet place for women to journal or pray through the questions.

- 1) What are some things that may be competing with your love for God?
- 2) Do you put up walls to keep people from seeing the “real you”?
- 3) Are there truths in God’s Word that you know or that you “preach” to others but are not practicing?
- 4) Has God convicted you of any specific sins that you have never truly repented of?
- 5) What does God see in your heart: true holiness or hypocrisy?
- 6) Who have you sinned against and never gone back to seek their forgiveness and make it right?
- 7) Is there anyone you have not fully forgiven in your heart?
- 8) Is there any area in which you are indulging sinful, fleshly desires?
- 9) Is there anything in your life right now that is grieving or quenching the Spirit and preventing you from walking by the Spirit?
- 10) What changes do you need to make in your schedule, lifestyle, or priorities to allow you to spend adequate time “sitting at the feet of Jesus, listening to Him speak”?

Chizuruoke (CHIZZY) ANDERSON is an author and speaker for True Girl (formerly Secret Keeper Girl) and the host of a monthly online Bible study for tweens. Her authentic worship style facilitates deep connection to God. She is married to David Anderson, has three daughters, and is Nigerian.

How she views revival: "Revival is like the whooshing away of stale air. I could breathe adequately well before it occurred, yes, but the air was close and heavier. But this wind comes in and sweeps away the old air like when a door down the hall has unexpectedly opened. This wind is relieving and invigorating. I want to inhale as deeply as I can and then exhale with a shout. God is so generous and gracious to keep infusing us in whatever way we need it most, whether it be quietly or thunderously. When we call out to Him for revival, He does not leave us stagnant."
