Five Promises for Leaders to Live By

Are you resting in the promises of God? It's one thing to know them, but it's another thing to anchor your ministry in the unshakeable reality that God will make good on every one. Open your Bible as you read this article by Leslie Bennett, who will help you uncover five promises to nourish your soul, renew your mind, and strengthen your faith.

New Video: Hear from Three Leaders Like You

In the midst of daily ministry needs and demanding seasons, God's Word is a well that never runs dry. We asked three Revive Our Hearts Ambassadors what Scripture they cling to as they serve. As you hear from Stephanie Christensen, Dina Coury, and Nijiba Tirado in this video, jot down the verses they share and keep them close by for the next time you need to hold fast to the truth.

Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth has found the promises of God to provide stability in times of stress, comfort in times of loss, peace in times of doubt, and so much more. In the booklet 50 Promises to Live By: Finding Encouragement, Peace, and Hope in the Promises of God, Nancy shares the promises that have been most meaningful in her walk with God. We've made this digital download available for free for your personal use.

As Nancy says, "Meditate on these promises; memorize them; make them part of your life. . . . Most of all, believe His promises, for 'he who promised is faithful' (Heb. 10:23)."

Tether Yourself to God's Promises in ALL Circumstances

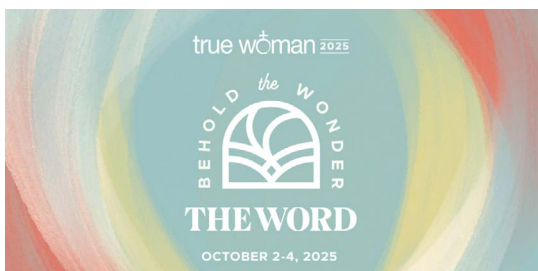

When you think of women who have tethered their lives to the promises of Jesus, who comes to mind? Joni Eareckson Tada has long been an example of how to apply the hope of God's Word in the context of real-life circumstances.

- "Every promise the Father has ever made finds its fulfillment in Jesus," Joni says. In the blog post "It's Simple. It's Jesus." she shares why that matters for your life.
- In the midst of intense need, you won't be disappointed when you "test" the promises of God. Learn to rely on God's promises in the podcast series "When Suffering and Sovereignty Collide," also by Joni.
- Joni has proven that one of the most personal and intimate ways to reorient your heart to the promises of God is to sing. At the close of a classic True Woman message, Kristyn Getty joined Joni on stage to declare the truth of God's character together. Enjoy their precious rendition of "Good Shepherd of My Soul."

Want to Anchor Your Women to the Truth of God's Word?

The women in your ministry need to learn to apply God's promises, but first they have to be in God's Word—reading, studying, and allowing the truth to shape their hearts and minds. Invite them to attend True Woman '25 this October, where thousands of women from around the world will gather to behold the wonder of the Word.

Here's what past attendees have said about True Woman events:

- "The conference changed me in such a way that I've made a commitment to be in God's Word every day."
- "I couldn't help but feel the impact from your conference—at a minimum in my own heart, and also, perhaps, for my church—that was born during the conference corporate prayer time."
- The True Woman conference gave me the kick I needed to get back on track in my daily walk with Christ. I feel nourished and excited again."
