

Revive Our Hearts™

THE Leader CONNECTION

Seeking the Lord for Revival

Prayer Guide

by Heidi Jo Fulk

Ten years ago, before God called me to become the women's ministry director at my church, He impressed on my heart that I was to serve my church by praying for revival. I haven't stopped since then. I'm praying for our entire church family and most specifically for the women I serve and for those I serve alongside.

I believe what Andrew Murray said is true, "The coming revival must begin with a great revival of prayer."

Fellow leader, I hope you'll join me in seeking God for what He already wants to do: Revive His beloved Church.

1. Pray declarations of God's unsearchable greatness, and give thanks that He brought everything together through Christ, for His glory (Psalm 145; Eph. 1:3-12).
2. Submit yourself and pray that others would submit to the sovereignty of the Father (Deut. 4:35; Psalm 131).
3. Humble yourself before the Lord (Psalm 25:9; Phil. 2:5-8).
4. Declare trust and willingness to both follow God and to be used by Him in whatever way He chooses (Psalm 9:10; Matt. 16:24).
5. Ask the Lord to demolish strongholds in yourself and others (Psalm 119:13; 2 Cor. 10:5).
6. Ask the Lord to prepare minds to recognize sin and to make hearts willing to repent of that sin, including yours (Hos. 10:12; 1 Pet. 1:13).

7. Seek the Lord.

- Seek Him with all your heart and all your soul (Deut. 4:29; Psalm 105:3-4).
- Seek His face and acknowledge your full dependence on His strength (1 Chron. 16:11).
- Seek Him so that you will not wander from His commands (Psalm 119:10).
- Set your face, just as Christ set His, towards the Father's will and glory (Luke 9:51).

8. Declare your hope that God has heard and will answer (Isa. 55:6-7).

Pray these things by yourself and with other women. Ask the Lord to use your prayers and His Word to fuel you. (Isa. 61:1-3; 2 Tim. 3:16-17). Then listen and respond (1 John 1:1-4; 3:12-14; Heb. 11:6).

As we pray these things for our churches and ministries, may His entire Kingdom be strengthened and expanded—all for His glory!

